

The Flag that brav'd a thousand years the Battle and the breeze.

Now our songs the Battle and the Progress The on - ly King that had no peer, the emblem on the cross, let the King that braved a thousand years the Battle and the Progress!

The musical score is written on three systems of staves. The first system consists of a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (treble and bass clefs). The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The third system features a more complex piano accompaniment with multiple voices in the right hand and a single voice in the left hand. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

Chorus Always to the Mountain-brow

The flaming flag of Liberty Of Gallia's sons the boast
Whom may a Briton see upon the British Coast
The only flag that Freedom rears her emblem o'er the seas
Is the flag that bears a thousand years the battle and the breeze"
The only flag that Freedom rears her emblem o'er the seas
Is the flag that bears a thousand years the battle and the breeze"

To aid the trampled rights of man or break oppression's chain
The foremost in the battles our brave boats in vain
The marines where ever he stood in every clime he stood
The flag that bears a thousand years the battle and the breeze"
The marines where ever he stood in every clime he stood
The flag that bears a thousand years the battle and the breeze"

If all unite at once we deem to keep her flag unfurled
No distance's it may fear not his defiance to the world
But fast will flow the nation's tears If lawless hands should seize
The flag that bears a thousand years the battle and the breeze"
But fast will flow the nation's tears If lawless hands should seize
The flag that bears a thousand years the battle and the breeze"
